IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT

THIS IRREVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of the 3rd day of June, 2020, by and between ROBERT W. BRADLEY II and CATHERINE M. BRADLEY, husband and wife, each residing in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina (each a "Grantor" and together the "Grantors"), and REBECCA L. BRADLEY, of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina (the "Trustee").

RECITALS

A. The Grantors are the parents of three (3) children: HENRY R. BRADLEY, born May 9, 2003; OLIVIA C. BRADLEY, born October 30, 2006; and SAMUEL T. BRADLEY, born January 17, 2010 (together, the "Children" and each a "Child").

B. The Grantors wish to establish an irrevocable trust for the benefit of the Children and their descendants, to be known as THE BRADLEY DESCENDANTS IRREVOCABLE TRUST (the "Trust").

C. Contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, the Grantors are transferring to the Trustee the property described on Schedule A, and the Grantors or others may later transfer additional property to the Trustee. All such property, together with its income and proceeds, is the "Trust Estate."

D. The Trustee is willing to accept the Trust Estate and to hold, administer and distribute it in accordance with this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Grantors hereby irrevocably transfer and deliver the Trust Estate to the Trustee, IN TRUST, to be held upon the following terms:

ARTICLE I

NAME, PURPOSE AND TRUST PROPERTY

1.1 Name.

The Trust shall be known as THE BRADLEY DESCENDANTS IRREVOCABLE TRUST. Property may be titled in the name of "Rebecca L. Bradley, Trustee of the Bradley Descendants Irrevocable Trust u/a/d June 3, 2020," or in the name of any successor Trustee then serving.

1.2 Initial Funding.

The Grantors have delivered to the Trustee the property described on Schedule A, and the Trustee acknowledges its receipt.

1.3 Additions.

Any person may add cash, securities, life insurance policies, interests in closely held entities, or other property acceptable to the Trustee, by lifetime transfer, by will, by beneficiary designation or otherwise. Additions shall be held under the terms of this Agreement.

1.4 Purpose.

The purpose of the Trust is to provide for the health, education, maintenance and support of the Children and their descendants, and to transfer family wealth in a manner consistent with the Grantors' estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax planning.

ARTICLE II

IRREVOCABILITY

2.1 Irrevocable.

This Agreement and the Trust are irrevocable. The Grantors waive every right and power, alone or with others, to alter, amend, revoke or terminate this Agreement or any trust created under it, or to change any beneficial interest.

2.2 No Retained Interest.

No part of the Trust Estate shall revert to or be used for the benefit of either Grantor or to discharge any legal obligation of either Grantor. Neither Grantor shall serve as Trustee at any time.

2.3 Administrative Amendments.

The Trustee may amend the administrative provisions of this Agreement only to comply with changes in law, to preserve intended tax treatment, or to correct a scrivener's error, and never to alter any beneficial interest.

ARTICLE III

BENEFICIARIES AND SEPARATE SHARES

3.1 Beneficiaries.

The beneficiaries of the Trust are the Children and their descendants. On the date of this Agreement the Children are HENRY R. BRADLEY, OLIVIA C. BRADLEY and SAMUEL T. BRADLEY. A child later born to or adopted by the Grantors shall be a Child for all purposes.

3.2 Separate Shares.

The Trustee shall divide the Trust Estate into equal separate shares, one for each Child then living, and shall administer each share as a separate trust for distribution, accounting and tax purposes. The Trustee may hold the shares in one consolidated investment account for convenience if the Trustee keeps records of each share's proportionate interest.

3.3 Deceased Child.

SPECIMEN - SAMPLE DOCUMENT PREPARED FOR SOFTWARE TESTING PURPOSES ONLY. NOT A LEGAL INSTRUMENT. ALL PERSONS AND ENTITIES ARE FICTITIOUS.

If a Child dies before full distribution of his or her share, the balance shall pass to that Child's then-living descendants, per stirpes, or if none, in equal parts to the shares of the other Children.

ARTICLE IV

WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS

4.1 Right of Withdrawal.

Upon each contribution, each Child (or the guardian of a minor Child) may withdraw the lesser of the Child's pro rata share of the contribution or the federal gift tax annual exclusion amount under Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

4.2 Notice and Lapse.

The Trustee shall promptly notify each Child, or the guardian of a minor Child, of each contribution. A withdrawal right lapses thirty (30) days after notice, but in any calendar year only to the extent of the greater of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or five percent (5%) of the Trust Estate; any excess carries forward to later years.

ARTICLE V

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Discretionary Distributions.

The Trustee may distribute to or for a Child so much of the income and principal of that Child's share as the Trustee considers advisable for the Child's health, education, maintenance and support. Undistributed income shall be added to principal at least annually.

5.2 Education.

The Trustee shall give primary consideration to each Child's educational needs, including tuition, fees, books, room and board at any secondary school, college, university, graduate or professional school, or vocational program.

5.3 Staged Distributions.

When a Child reaches the following ages, the Trustee shall distribute to the Child, free of trust:

(a) at age twenty-five (25), one-third (1/3) of the principal of the Child's share;

(b) at age thirty (30), one-half (1/2) of the remaining principal; and

(c) at age thirty-five (35), the entire remaining balance, whereupon the share terminates.

5.4 Deferral.

The Trustee may defer any distribution under Section 5.3 while a Child is the subject of substance dependency, pending litigation, creditor claims, divorce proceedings or legal incapacity, and shall document the reason for the deferral in writing.

6.1 Initial Trustee.

REBECCA L. BRADLEY shall serve as the initial Trustee of the Trust and of each separate share.

6.2 Successor Trustees.

If REBECCA L. BRADLEY dies, resigns, becomes incapacitated or otherwise ceases to serve, DANIEL P. WHITAKER shall serve as successor Trustee. If DANIEL P. WHITAKER is unable or unwilling to serve, the then-serving Trustee, or if none, a majority of the adult Children, may appoint as successor Trustee any bank or trust company qualified to conduct trust business in the State of North Carolina.

6.3 Resignation.

A Trustee may resign by signed written notice delivered to the successor Trustee, to each adult Child, and to the guardian of each minor Child. The resignation is effective on the date stated in the notice or, if none, on acceptance by the successor Trustee.

6.4 Bond; Compensation; Liability.

No Trustee shall be required to post bond. An individual Trustee may receive reasonable compensation; a corporate Trustee shall be paid under its published fee schedule. No successor Trustee is liable for the acts of a predecessor or required to audit a predecessor's accounts.

No beneficiary may anticipate, assign or encumber any interest in the Trust, and no interest shall be subject to the claims of any creditor, spouse or former spouse of a beneficiary, to the fullest extent permitted by N.C.G.S. Section 36C-5-502.

ARTICLE IX

The Grantors intend that the Trust be a separate taxpayer and that neither Grantor be treated as owner of any portion of it under Sections 671 through 679 of the Code. The Trust shall obtain its own taxpayer identification number.

9.2 GST Exemption.

The Trustee may divide any trust into separate trusts with inclusion ratios of zero and one to preserve the benefit of any generation-skipping transfer tax exemption allocated to the Trust.
